

Senior Pet Checklist

You know your pet best. In an effort to better serve the needs of you and your pet, please take a moment to consider the following possible changes in your aging pet.

Have you noticed:	Yes	Comments
Bad breath, sore gums, difficulty chewing
Increased drooling
Weight gain or loss
Appetite increase or decrease
Vomiting
Diarrhea
Constipation
Blood or mucus in stool
Blood in urine
Increase or decrease in amount or frequency of urination
Increase or decrease in amount or frequency of stool
Change in consistency of stool
Accidents in house
Increase or decrease in water intake
Sneezing, coughing

Panting or heavy breathing
Lethargy or seems tired
Any lumps or bumps
Muscle tremors, shaking
Changes in skin or coat
Stiffness, limping, difficulty getting up, weakness, incoordination
Drags foot or stumbles
Whining or meowing more
Confusion or disorientation
Fails to recognize you
Wanders or paces
Withdrawn or listless
Aggression
Changes in sleep pattern
Vision loss or eye issues
Hearing loss or ear issues
Decrease in grooming (cats)		